

Pilgrimage to the Holy Tunic in Trier

- of the Ecclesia-Dei-Communities -

with His Eminence Walter Cardinal Brandmüller

from April 20th to April 22nd, 2012

The Bishop of Trier, His Excellency Dr. Stephan Ackermann, has made an invitation for the period of April 13th to May 13th, 2012 for a major pilgrimage to the Holy Tunic in Trier.

The theme of the pilgrimage is: "Bring Together What Is Divided".

During these four weeks, up to one million pilgrims are expected in Trier. On the weekend of April 20th to April 22nd, 2012 the pilgrimage of all communities, parishes and groups, who are attached to the traditional Latin liturgy (the extraordinary form of the Roman Rite) is scheduled, to which we would like to invite in a special way.

At the pilgrimage of these communities, all liturgies are celebrated in the traditional Latin form. The Holy Tunic, which St. Helena, the mother of Emperor Konstantin has brought to Trier, is the robe of Our Lord, which He wore at His passion and over which the soldiers casted lots. The tunic of Our Lord is one of the most precious relics of Christendom. The Holy Robe is shown very seldom, during the past century only in the years 1933, 1959 and 1996. Trier, the oldest episcopal city of Germany, houses further sacred sites, which we will visit as pilgrims. The only sepulcher of an apostle on the northern side of the Alps, St. Matthias, is located in the Basilica, which is named after him. Another sacred site is the church St. Paulin. St. Paulinus is one of the outstanding bishops of the occident, who died as a martyr, in the conflict over the Divinity of Christ. In the very same church, the sepulchers of uncounted martyrs of Trier are located. They shed their blood for their faith under the Emperor Diokletian in the year 286 in fidelity to the Christian faith.

As organizer of the pilgrimage of the Ecclesia-Dei-Communities, I cordially invite you in the name of all those communities to the Holy-Tunic-Pilgrimage from April 20th to April 22nd 2012. Please come in great numbers.

Trier and Kell am See, on the Feast of the Epiphany 2012
